This book is dedicated to my grandfather, Robert Allen Watts (1892 - 1978). He was the most religious man that I have ever known. He had a tremendous influence upon my life. To me, he truly was a great man.

Preface

I had to have answers! Something major was happening to me. A friend of mine had turned me on to a powerful drug that had changed my life. When I used this drug, miracles were happening. Miracles were happening both to me and around me. It would be logical to assume that since I was high on drugs, these so-called miracles were actually drug-induced hallucinations. However, many of these miracles were witnessed by other people, some of whom were also high on drugs, and some of whom were not high on drugs. Thus, these miracles could not be dismissed as hallucinations that were caused by drugs. These miracles were verified to have occurred by numerous other people who were not high on drugs. Therefore, I was forced to accept the fact that these miracles were actually happening. To say that I was in over my head was a great understatement of the facts. I did not know for sure what was happening to me or why it was happening. The only things I knew for sure were that something major was happening to me, it was important, either to me or to the entire world, and I had to have answers. I knew that I was in contact with massive intelligence, and I knew that it was controlling me rather than me controlling it.

It was this desperate need for answers that caused me to visit my grandparents on this day, sometime during the year 1976. My grandfather, my grandmother, and I were sitting in the living room talking about my situation. I said, "Granddad, you are aware of the fact that something is happening to me. I have told you about all the miracles that have been happening to me. I have told you that a message from GOD is trying to be delivered through me. I do not know what it is that I am supposed to do. Granddad, you are the most religious man that I have ever known. You know more about religion than anyone I have ever known. You have to tell me what it is that I am supposed to do."

That is when it happened! GOD spoke directly to me in English, through my grandfather. My grandfather's eyes started fluttering wildly in his head, and the voice of GOD came bellowing out of his mouth. GOD'S voice was coming from all directions at the same time, and it was exceedingly forceful! I knew immediately what was happening. GOD said, "Let your lights so shine before all men that they may see your good works, and glorify the Father who art in heaven!" I wanted to be certain that I correctly recorded every word of this commandment. So I said, "Can you repeat that?" Again, my grandfather's eye's started fluttering wildly in his head, and GOD repeated his commandment. GOD said, "Let your lights so shine before all men that they may see your good works, and glorify the Father who art in heaven!" I immediately grabbed a pencil and a piece of paper, and I recorded GOD'S commandment, word for word.

I have written this book, "GOD Glorified - Revelation Of The Absolute Truth", in response to GOD'S commandment. This book is intended to be the beginning of my gift to the world.
